Brazil Worksheet and Quiz

Brazil is the largest country in South America and fifth largest in the entire world. It borders every other South American nation, barring Ecuador and Chile, and makes up 47 per cent of the continent. The country has been the world’s largest exporter of coffee for more than 150 years.

NAME: .............................................

Date: .................................

Questions:

1. ..........................................................is the oldest city in Brazil.
2. The highest mountain in the country is.............................................measuring 2,994 metres above sea level.
3. The capital of Brazil is..........................................
4. The country has total ......................................states.
5. Brazil has the ..................................largest economy in the world.
6. The statue of Christ the Redeemer in Rio de Janeiro measures .......................................in height.
7. The country’s national animal is.............................................
8. The main exporter of Brazil nuts is.............................................not Brazil.
9. The first carnival in Brazil was held in.................................
10. The total landmass of Brazil is.................................................................

Answers:

1. Sao Vicente
2. the Pico da Neblina
3. Brasilia
4. Twenty six
5. Seventh
6. 38 metres
7. Macaw
8. Bolivia
9. 1723
10. 8,514,877 square kilometres